To Whom It May Concern:

This letter of recommendation is being sent for Jeff Wilson, a gentleman that I have had the privilege of working with for many years. I can honestly say that Jeff has always demonstrated a great work ethic and is capable of doing anything he sets his mind to. Jeff is a very conscientious and dedicated employee. He takes great pride in every project he works on, and takes great care in knowing the needs of his customers as well as his co-workers. Jeff also has a solid understanding of the requirements needed to make a small business creditable and profitable, and I am confident he will be able to meet the standards you have set.

Jeff knows the construction business well. He has a full understanding of reading and interpreting blue prints, the installation of all under ground utilities, (ie storm, sanitary, water), and the installation of roadways. Jeff has supervised large crews on subdivision construction, public work, and has also worked independently on small projects.

In addition to his work experience, Jeff has great personal qualities. He has the ability to work well with people, can express himself to explain situations and problems, and has always been interested in helping others. I am confident he will continue to assert these important characteristics which, unfortunately, are not found in a lot of today's employees.

Jeff will be an excellent employee. His experience in the industry is second to none. He has been and I am sure he will be an asset to your organization.

Sincerely,

Steven M. Carson

My name is Rick Reed, I'm the President of R & R Pipeline, Inc. a utility contractor serving Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania for the past twenty three years.

I'm writing in regards to Mr. Jeff Wilson, Jeff was employed with us from April 18, 2005 thru June 2, 2006.

During this time Jeff was responsible for over seeing several of our water distribution crews which included all scheduling of material, equipment, man power, overseeing casing bores, directional bores, meter stations, completion of buildings, traffic control and all restoration.

I found Jeff to be hard working, have excellent communication skills, he knows and understands the field work and is willing to work the hours it takes to get the job done.

I highly recommend Jeff for any type of field supervisor position.
